No. SC13-2385

IN RE: AMENDMENTS TO FLORIDA RULES OF JUVENILE PROCEDURE.

[March 20, 2014]

PER CURIAM.

The Florida Bar’s Juvenile Court Rules Committee (Committee) has filed a “fast-track” out-of-cycle report proposing amendments to the Florida Rules of Juvenile Procedure in response to recent statutory changes. See Fla. R. Jud. Admin. 2.140(e). We have jurisdiction.¹

The Committee proposes amendments to current Florida Rule of Juvenile Procedure 8.415 and form 8.973, and the deletion of forms 8.971 and 8.972. The Committee also proposes new rules 8.401 and 8.435, and several new forms. The amended and new rules and forms are in response to the passage of the Nancy C.

1. Art. V, § 2(a), Fla. Const.

Detert Common Sense and Compassion Independent Living Act, chapter 2013-178, Laws of Florida. This act amended provisions of chapters 39 and 409, Florida Statutes. As pertinent here, this legislation enables young adults between eighteen and twenty-one years of age to remain in foster care and sets forth eligibility, case planning, and judicial review requirements for such young adults. The legislation also provides new judicial review requirements for dependent children who are seventeen years of age. The new statutory provisions became effective on January 1, 2014. Ch. 2013-178, § 14, Laws of Fla. The proposed amendments were unanimously approved by the Board of Governors of The Florida Bar.

After considering the proposed amendments and reviewing the relevant legislation, we amend the Florida Rules of Juvenile Procedure and forms as reflected in the appendix to this opinion. New language is indicated by underscoring; deletions are indicated by struck-through type. The amendments shall take effect immediately upon the release of this opinion. Because the amendments were not published for comment prior to adoption, interested persons shall have sixty days from the date of this opinion in which to file comments with the Court.²

2. All comments must be filed with the Court on or before May 19, 2014, with a certificate of service verifying that a copy has been served on the Committee Chair, Whitney Marie Untiedt, Office of the Public Defender, 35 N. Main Street, Gainesville, Florida 32601-5323, untiedtw@pdo8.org, and on the Bar Staff Liaison to the Committee, Ellen Sloyer, 651 E. Jefferson Street, Tallahassee,

It is so ordered.

POLSTON, C.J., and PARIENTE, LEWIS, QUINCE, CANADY, LABARGA, and PERRY, JJ., concur.

THE FILING OF A MOTION FOR REHEARING SHALL NOT ALTER THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THESE AMENDMENTS.

(c) Department Responsibility.

(2) After the case plan has been developed, and before acceptance by the court, the department must make the appropriate referrals for services that will allow the young adult to begin receiving the agreed-upon services immediately.

(3) The department must immediately provide the young adult a signed copy of the agreed-upon case plan.

(4) Not less than 3 business days before a judicial review or permanency hearing, the department must file the case plan with the court.

(d) Signature. The case plan must be signed by the young adult, all parties and, when appropriate, the legal guardian if the young adult is not of the capacity to participate in the case planning process.

(e) Service. Each party must be served with a copy of the case plan not less than 3 business days before the judicial review hearing. If the location of the young adult is unknown, this fact must be documented in writing and filed with the court.

(f) Re-admitted to Care. If the department petitions the court for reinstatement of jurisdiction after a young adult has been re-admitted to care under Chapter 39, Florida Statutes, the department must file an updated case plan.

RULE 8.415. JUDICIAL REVIEW OF DEPENDENCY CASES

(a) Required Review. All dependent children ~~shall~~must have their status reviewed as provided by law. Any party may petition the court for a judicial review as provided by law.

(b) Scheduling Hearings.

(1) Initial Review Hearing. The court ~~shall~~must determine when the first review hearing ~~shall~~must be held and the clerk of the court ~~shall~~must immediately schedule the review hearing. In no case ~~shall~~may the hearing be scheduled for later than 6 months from the date of removal from the home or 90 days from the disposition or case plan approval hearing, whichever comes first. In every case, the court must conduct a judicial review at least every 6 months.

(2) Subsequent Review Hearings. At each judicial review hearing, the court ~~shall~~must schedule the next judicial review hearing which ~~shall~~must be conducted within 6 months. The clerk of the court, at the judicial review hearing, ~~shall~~must provide the parties, the social service agency charged with the supervision of care, custody, or guardianship of the child, the foster parent or legal custodian in whose home the child resides, any preadoptive parent, and such other persons as the court may direct with written notice of the date, time, and location of the next judicial review hearing.

(3) Review Hearings for Children 17 Years of Age. The court must hold a judicial review hearing within 90 days after a child's 17th birthday. The court must also issue an order, separate from the order on judicial review, that the disability of nonage of the child has been removed and must continue to hold timely judicial review hearings. If necessary, the court may review the status of the child more frequently during the year before the child's 18th birthday. At the last review hearing before the child reaches 18 years of age, the court must also address whether the child plans to remain in foster care, and, if so, ensure that the child's transition plan complies with the law.

(4) Review Hearings for Young Adults in Foster Care. The court must review the status of a young adult at least every six months and must hold a permanency review hearing at least annually while the young adult remains in foster care. The young adult or any other party to the dependency case may request an additional hearing or judicial review.

(c) Report. In all cases, the department or its agent ~~shall~~must prepare a report to the court. The report ~~shall~~must contain facts showing the court to have jurisdiction of the cause as a dependency case. It ~~shall~~must contain information as to the identity and residence of the parent, if known, and the legal custodian, the dates of the original dependency adjudication and any subsequent judicial review proceedings, the results of any safe-harbor placement assessment including the status of the child's placement, and a request for one or more of the following forms of relief:

- (1) that the child's placement be changed;
- (2) that the case plan be continued to permit the parents or social service agency to complete the tasks assigned to them in the agreement; or
- (3) that proceedings be instituted to terminate parental rights and legally free the child for adoption.

(d) Service. A copy of the report containing recommendations and, if not previously provided by the court, a notice of review hearing ~~shall~~must be served on all persons who are required by law to be served at least 72 hours before the judicial review hearing.

(e) Information Available to Court. At the judicial review hearing the court may receive any relevant and material evidence pertinent to the cause. This ~~shall~~must include written reports required by law and may include, but ~~shall~~must not be limited to, any psychiatric or psychological evaluations of the child or parent, caregiver, or legal custodian that may be obtained and that are material and relevant. This evidence may be received by the court and relied on to the extent of its probative value, even though it may not be competent in an adjudicatory hearing.

(f) Court Action.

(1) The court ~~shall~~must hold a hearing to review the compliance of the parties with the case plan and to determine what assigned tasks were and were not accomplished and the reasons for any ~~nonachievement~~noncompliance.

(2) If the court finds that the parents have substantially complied with the case plan, the court ~~shall~~must return the child to the custody of the parents if the court is satisfied that reunification will not be detrimental to the child's safety, well-being, or physical, mental, or emotional health.

(3) If the court finds that the social service agency has not complied with its obligations, the court may find the social service agency to be in contempt, ~~shall~~must order the social service agency to submit its plan for compliance with the case plan, and ~~shall~~must require the social service agency to show why the child could not be safely returned to the home of the parents. If the court finds that the child could not be safely returned to the parents, it ~~shall~~must extend the case plan for a period of not more than 6 months to allow the social service agency to comply with its obligations under the case plan.

(4) At any judicial review held under section 39.701~~(6)~~(3), Florida Statutes, if, in the opinion of the court, the department has not ~~complied with~~met its obligations to the child as specified~~stated~~ in the written case plan or in the provision of independent living services ~~as required by sections 39.701(6) and 409.1451, Florida Statutes,~~ the court ~~shall~~may ~~a show cause order~~ issue an order directing the department to show cause as to why it has not done so. ~~If cause is shown for failure to comply~~ the department cannot justify its noncompliance, the court ~~shall~~may give the department 30 days within which to comply and, on failure to comply ~~with this or any subsequent order~~, the court may hold the department in contempt.

(5) The court must enter a written order on the conclusion of the review hearing including a statement of the facts, those findings it was directed to determine by law, a determination of the future course of the proceedings, and the date, time, and place of the next hearing.

(g) Jurisdiction.

~~(5)~~(1) When a child is returned to the parents, the court ~~shall~~must not terminate its jurisdiction over the child until 6 months after the return. Based on a report of the department and any other relevant factors, the court ~~shall~~must then determine whether jurisdiction should be continued or terminated. If its jurisdiction is to be terminated, it ~~shall~~must enter an order to that effect.

~~(6)~~(2) When a child has not been returned to the parent, but has been permanently committed to the department for subsequent adoption, the court ~~shall~~must continue to hold judicial review hearings on the status of the child at least every 6 months until the adoption is finalized. These hearings ~~shall~~must be held in accordance with these rules.

~~(7)~~(3) If a ~~youth in the legal custody of the department immediately before his or her 18th birthday~~young adult petitions the court at any time before his or her 19th birthday requesting the court's continued jurisdiction, the court may retain or reinstate jurisdiction for a period of time not to continue beyond the date of the ~~youth~~young adult's 19th birthday. ~~This continued jurisdiction is for the purpose of determining whether appropriate aftercare support, Road to Independence Scholarship, transitional support, mental health, and developmental disability services that were required to be provided to the young adult before reaching 18 years of age have been provided to the youth.~~

(4) If a young adult has chosen to remain in extended foster care after he or she has reached 18 years of age, the department may not close a case and the court may not terminate jurisdiction until the court finds, following a hearing, that the appropriate statutory criteria have been met.

~~(8)~~(5) If a petition for special immigrant juvenile status and an application for adjustment of status have been filed on behalf of a foster child and the petition and application have not been granted by the time the child reaches 18 years of age, the court may retain jurisdiction solely for the purpose of allowing the continued consideration of the petition and application by federal authorities. Review hearings ~~shall~~must be set solely for the purpose of determining the status of the petition and application. The court's jurisdiction ~~shall~~must terminate on the final decision of the federal authorities, or on the immigrant child's 22nd birthday, whichever occurs first.

~~(9) The court shall enter a written order on the conclusion of the review hearing including a statement of the facts, those findings it was directed to determine by law, a determination of the future course of the proceedings, and the date, time, and place of the next hearing~~

(gh) Administrative Review. The department, under a formal agreement with the court in particular cases, may conduct administrative reviews instead of judicial reviews for children in out-of-home placement. Notice must be provided to all parties. An administrative review may not be substituted for the first judicial review or any subsequent 6-month review. Any party may petition the court for a judicial review as provided by law.

(hi) Concurrent Planning.

(1) At the initial judicial review hearing, the court ~~shall~~must make findings regarding the likelihood of the child's reunification with the parent or legal custodian within 12 months after the removal of the child from the home.

(2) If the court makes a written finding that it is not likely that the child will be reunified with the parent or legal custodian within 12 months after the child was removed from the home, the department must file a motion to amend the case plan and declare that it will use concurrent planning for the case plan.

(3) The department must file the motion to amend the case plan no later than 10 business days after receiving the written finding of the court and attach the proposed amended case plan to the motion.

(4) If concurrent planning is already being used, the case plan must document the efforts the department is making to complete the concurrent goal.

RULE 8.435. REINSTATEMENT OF JURISDICTION FOR YOUNG ADULT

(a) Petition for Reinstatement of Jurisdiction.

(1) If a young adult who is between the ages of 18 and 21 is re-admitted to foster care, the department shall petition the court to reinstate jurisdiction over the young adult.

(2) The petition for reinstatement of jurisdiction must be in writing and specify that the young adult meets the eligibility requirements for readmission to foster care as provided by law. The petition is not required to be sworn and notarized.

(3) The department shall serve the young adult and any party a copy of the petition for reinstatement of jurisdiction.

(b) Hearing on Petition for Reinstatement of Jurisdiction.

(1) Upon filing of the petition for reinstatement of jurisdiction, the court shall schedule and conduct a hearing on the petition for reinstatement of jurisdiction.

(2) The department shall serve the young adult and any party a notice of the hearing on the petition for reinstatement of jurisdiction.

(c) Order on Petition for Reinstatement of Jurisdiction.

(1) If the department establishes that the young adult meets the eligibility requirements for readmission to foster care as provided by law, the court shall enter an order reinstating jurisdiction over the young adult.

(2) In the order reinstating jurisdiction, the court shall schedule a judicial review hearing to take place within 6 months.
